Continuation of 10. Other (including any explanation in support of the above items): Applicants' Appeal Brief contains numerous deficiencies that do not comply with 37 CFR 41.37 as indicted by the boxes marked above, a few examples for the reasons for the defective brief is because applicant failed to mention in the brief under the heading "Status of Claims" the status of claims 1-16 and 24-32 as being [canceled], under the heading "Summary of Claimed Subject Matter" appears to be a summary of the invention as a whole instead of the concise explanation of the subject matter defined in the claims as required, there should be no groupings of the claims in the Appeals Brief, under the heading "Grounds of Rejections to be Reviewed on Appeal" should be a concise statement of each ground of rejection presented for review, and applicant failed to submit Appendices with a title heading "Evidence" marked [NONE]; if no evidence is being submitted and an Appendices with a title heading "Related Proceedings" marked [NONE] if not applicable as required by 37 CFR 41.37 C1(ix) and (x) .
